

The 502nd/507th US Army Security Agency Reunion

Don Mason attended a reunion of members of the 502nd/507th US Army Security Agency in Lancaster, Pennsylvania from 2 October until 6 October. The former members of the organization get together each year to continue the comradery of the years they were together in the late 50s and early 60s. Unfortunately, the number of people who are able to attend gets smaller each year.

While there they enjoyed many of the things the Amish Country had to offer, they had the family style dinner at the Pennsylvania Dutch Restaurant, took a buggy ride in an Amish buggy, attended a performance of "Samson" at the Sight and Sound Theater as well as a number of other things.

This year was especially interesting as we had a visit from a Department of Army Senior Historian who is writing a book about the role of the Army Security Agency during the cold war. We discussed a variety of things with him as he prompted us with questions. The only downside is the book will take 5 to 8 years to publish since the Army checks and rechecks all the research.

The group plans another reunion in 2017 somewhere in the US and Don says he plans to attend.

Men's Breakfast

We met at Denny's in Bossier City for the men's breakfast this month. A very enjoyable get-together, and beside that the food was good.

Political conversations centered on the Louisiana Constitution amendments and the fact that there are 13 people running for President of the United States.
